And Is Most Successful Sale of Building Sites Ever Known In Richmond or Madison

What was without a doubt the most successful sale of building lots ever held in Madison county was conducted by the Wakefield-Davis Realty Company, of Shelbyville, in Richmond Thursday. The entire RoseDale addition located at the edge of the city limits, was sold for a total of $61,-262. This took in the elegant old home and the 56 acres of the Caperton property which this hustling real estate firm bought from Mrs. Caperton a short time ago for $40,000. Up until the final lot was sold after seven o'clock Thursday night, and the free lot had been awarded to Mrs. J. J. McCarthy, interest in the big sale was intense and the large crowd followed the auctioneer, Col. J. T. Cowherd, from one tract to another. Bidding was at all times spirited, and while the lots all sold well, many of the buyers were offered profits on the most desirable of the lots before the day was over. Mr. M. E. Baker who bought the residence for $8,100, was offered almost $2,000 prolt before he left the grounds, but decided to keep it awhile. He bought a couple more lots during the selling.

The Messrs. Wakefield, Davis and Randolph, composing the and 7 at $40 each. Wakefield-Davis Realty Company were greatly pleased with the result of the sale, and cannot say too many kind words about their treatment in Richmond. They asked the Daily Register to convey to the good people of this community their sincerest appreciation for the hearty spirit of cooperation and good will with which they were greeted on all $72.50 each. sides. Few business men or strangers coming to a community $65 each. made a better impression or more friends than did these gentlemen, and that they had an unqualified success in their big undertaking seems to be a source of gratification to their many warm friends here, as well as to themselves. lots at $165.
